

Leaders at Work

In conjunction with the Career Connection national program, Leaders at Work recognizes FCCLA members who create projects to strengthen leadership skills on the job. These skills contribute to success across a broad range of career fields. Leaders at Work motivates students to prepare for career success.

Youth learn leadership skills in specific career units and create Leaders at Work projects to accomplish personal goals in one of six career units related to Family and Consumer Sciences—

- Early Childhood, Education, and Services
- Food Production and Services
- Hospitality, Tourism, and Recreation
- Housing, Interiors, and Furnishings
- Textiles and Apparel
- Family and Consumer Sciences Education.

Partners:

- Johnson and Wales University, www.jwu.edu

Awards:

Each member may apply to be recognized as a Leaders at Work Outstanding Leader in one of the six career units. These young people are recognized at the FCCLA National Leadership Conference and earn an impressive accomplishment to add to their resumes.

**The Leaders at Work Scholarship sponsored by Johnson and Wales University has been cancelled for the 2009-2010 school year.****

Deadline:

Outstanding Leader Applications due to FCCLA national headquarters by March 1.
