

Capture the Cover

Capture the Cover is an FCCLA photography contest for student members only.

Rules

- This is an individual contest for nationally affiliated FCCLA student members.
- Contest participants may submit one (1) photograph for the contest.
- Multiple members from the same chapter may enter this contest.
- Photographs should express an appreciation or concern for the environment.
- Photographs must be shot at a 300 pixel/inch resolution (4MPs or above) and be an 8" x 10" image size. Photographs of a lower resolution or size will be disqualified prior to voting.
- Photographs must be submitted digitally using the below method or will be disqualified prior to voting.

Submission Method

- All contest entries should be submitted via email to competitiveevents@fclclainc.org.
- The email body should include the following information:
 - Student's Name
 - Student's Email
 - School
 - School Phone
 - State
 - Adviser
 - Adviser's Email
 - Signed Consent & Release Agreement (indicate whether it is attached, faxed, or mailed)
- The photography entry should be attached to the email.
- A signed copy of the Consent and Release Agreement must be submitted with each entry. This may be attached to the email, faxed to (703) 860-2713, or mailed to the following address:

FCCLA
Attn: Competitive Events Coordinator
1910 Association Drive
Reston, VA 20191

Contest Voting

- All qualified entries will be displayed at the 2010 National Leadership Conference in Chicago, Illinois. Meeting attendees will choose the contest winner by casting votes on site with ballots received at registration.

Recognition

- The winner will be announced at the Closing General Session of the 2010 National Leadership Conference.
- The winning entry will be featured on the cover of the 2011 January/February issue of Teen Times.
- The winner will be recognized on the FCCLA national website.